“ Nanny was one of the most compassionate, caring, and unselfish women that I have ever known. She became my mother when my mother passed away last year. She was no longer my mother-in-law. The joy of being in such a loving, closeknit family is hard for me to put in so few words. I love all of you and may you have solace in knowing that she is at peace now. She will be missed but her memory will live in my heart forever. I'll always remember her last words to Faye and me Thursday. It was hardly audible but she whispered, "I'll be alright". I have no doubt that now she will be. Thank you all for opening your hearts to me and embracing me as one of your own.
All my love, Carol
