“ Mrs. Ruby L. Son Davis Obituary

“ I will never forget the first time I met Ms. Ruby, Zach was 18 months old when we moved next door to Ms. Ruby. She came over with a loaf of banana bread to welcome us to the neighborhood. Ms. Ruby was my support system through my Mom's illness and death I will never forget when my clothes dryer was not working. I hung my clothes out on the clothes line. It started raining so I was headed outside to get the clothes but they were not on the line. As you can guess, Ms. Ruby had come over, got the clothes and took them to her house to dry for me. Zach and I LOVED "our" Ms. Ruby. She was a true friend and I will never forget her.

“ Ruby was a delightful, respected and favorite friend to my grandmother, Ruthie Gillis. As a child I remember my grandmother speaking fondly of Ruby and ALWAYS looking forward to their visits. Ruby was a faithful to visit my grandmother in her last days. Our prayers are with you during this difficult time as you adjust to her home-going. Myself, I will miss her bright smile. God bless.
