“ Ruth was such a fine, fine friend and TOPS PAL. I enjoyed the times we went to lunch together and the times when she would help me with my crocheting. She was such a generous and loving person. Oh, did I love her. I truly loved her and will miss her greatly.

“ I met Ruth when I came to Phoebe in 1989. She was one of the sweetest and kindest ladies I had ever met. She was a good teacher in CSP and never minded helping anyone She loved her family very much and spoke about her grandchildren all the time. We had fun times at work and laughed a lot. In a very short time ,she felt like family to me. As the years passed and I moved on in Phoebe and she retired, I no longer saw her, but she always mailed me a card at Christmas. I loved her very much and she will be missed greatly. You deserve your rest sweet lady even though it hurts to say goodbye. I will never forget you or the joy you brought to my life .Pray for your family to have Peace.
