“ You KNOW that I am very sorry to hear of your dear mother's passing. At the same time, I pray that you & your entire family will find peace in the days, months & years to come in knowing what a wonderful & dear Mother she has been. I will always remember her little smile (sort of a half-smile really) and how I thought I could see her wanting you to go & have fun with all of "us" but, at the same time, I think it was her looking like she'd rather just have you stay home..haha! I suppose that's what mothers do. I am happy that you will have these many, many years of memories to keep in your heart. Stay strong when you can, weaken when you need to. This is a very tough time...but, I believe you already know....this is not the end.

“ Ronnie,
I am so sorry about the loss of your mother. My mom passed away last October so I know the pain you are feeling right now. But our moms are in a wonderful place now and we will see them again some day. I hope this will give you some comfort in your time of sorrow. I will say a prayer for your mom and for you and your family.
sincerely,

“ Ronnie,
*My heart was filled with a great sadness on hearing of the passing of your mother. Ruth is now at peace and resting in heaven with her husband, Ed. She was a wonderful lady and a good friend to Mother - just as your father was a good friend to Dad - they were like second parents to me. Our families were close friends for many years and we share great memories - camping, water skiing, vacations together, and many gatherings for dinner at our houses. (Your mother made the best deep dish pizza ever!)
I will be with you in spirit as you celebrate her life.
Love to you and all your family,
