

Sally W. Hunt Obituary

January 23, 1943 - December 3, 2010

A native and life long resident of Albany, Mrs. Hunt attended school in Massachusetts and was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. She was a kind, warm, loving person and such a joy to be around. Survivors include 2 brothers, Frank Wetherbee and his wife Edith and Roland Wetherbee and his wife Joyce all of Albany, a sister Meta Crane of Tennessee. Several nieces and nephews also survive.

Tribute Wall

“ Sally W. Hunt Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Sally was a sweet,precious friend whom I will miss greatly. We were neighbors at the lake and we all looked out for each other. I am deeply saddened by what has happened. She and Mr. Fred were good friends and very special neighbors.My heart is very heavy. God Bless her and I pray she is resting in the arms of our Lord forever. My sympathy and love to her family.

Gale Warren - December 06, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Sally was a good friend, even though it's been a long time since we've seen each other. She was such a fun, loving and kind person and the world will be a lesser place because of her death. But I hope the family is consoled by knowing there will be a brighter star in heaven because she's there. God bless you, Sally Wetherbee; it was an honor and a joy to know you. May God hold your family gently in his arms and grant them peace.

Sara Joiner Eubanks - December 06, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Frank, Roland, Maria, Harold, Wally, Put, Theresal share your grief and loss of this lovely lady.

Fred Hunt - December 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

MC

“ We are praying for comfort for all of you during this time of grief. Sally was one of the kindest people we had ever know. We treasured every moment we spent with her. We will truely miss her.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chandler - December 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

MD

“ Sally was a dear friend for almost 30 yrs. and I will miss her so very much. She was fun and had a delightful sense of humor. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

Mary Davis - December 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM