“ *What a wonderful lady and such an inspiration to so many of us growing up at Raleigh White Baptist Church. The Johnson's and my parents traveled together and took many fishing trips during their retirement years. So many memories that I can't begin to list them all. Cathy and Alan you were very Blessed to have such a loving mother and thank you for sharing her love with so many of us growing up. My Prayers and thoughts are with you and your families. Mrs. Sally until we meet again take care of my sweet parents and our Raleigh White friends in heaven.

“ If I could only tell you what Mrs. Sally has meant in my life. She was a mentor to me in church. Her and my Mom worked together in WMU and I learned from them what missions was all about. Cathy and Alan, you were blessed to have her as your Mom. Love you guys and are praying for you during this time.
