

Samuel B. Tucker Obituary

July 26, 1940 - May 28, 2011

Samuel B. Tucker of Lee County died Sunday, May 29, 2011 at the Wilson's Hospice Center in Albany following a long illness. Sam was a member of Sherwood Baptist Church since 1987 having served in the tape ministry, welcome committee, and Royal Ambassadors. As a father and husband he was unselfish, had caring ways, tender, gentle, a thoughtful heart with a hushed quiet core and was kind with reverent and a godly soul. He joined the United States Marine Corps in 1958 and received an honorable discharge in 1967 as a Staff Sergeant. He started a career in food service 1967 working with Shoney's Big Boy, the Sizzling Steak House, and Long John Silver until 1981. Having a passion for his fellow Marines he went to work with the Department of Defense as a Civilian Marine at the Marine Corps Logistics Bases, Albany, Georgia in 1981 retiring in 2003. Upon retirement, he joined Modern Technologies in 2004 transferring to British Aerospace Engineering (BAE) Systems and worked as a contractor until 2010. He leaves his wife of 43 years, Dottie Ann (Oliver) Tucker; his son, Stephen Paul Tucker of Macon; two brothers, Bennie Tucker (Naomi) and Leland Tucker (Linda), two sisters, Betty Thommason, Carolyn Trundle (Charles) all of Ringgold, Georgia; a brother Dewey Tucker (Linda), a sister Patsy Morris, both of Chattanooga, Tennessee; his brother in laws, Jimmy Oliver (Judy), Moreland, Georgia; Jerry Hall (Barbara), Rockvale, Tennessee; his sister in laws, Barbara Everett (Al), Broadway, North Carolina; Vickie Miller (Jim), Jackie Killian (Mike), both of Sun Prairie, Wisconsin; many nieces, nephews, and close friends. He is preceded in death by his parents, Elmer and Lula Mae Tucker, his sisters, Dorothy Thommason and Sarilyn Brodnax.
