“ Momma -

This time last week we were having pedicure parties.....how did it go by so fast? My heart is broken into a million pieces and I already miss you more than I can stand it. You were the best Momma I could ever asked for and I am so thankful for all you ever did for Cody, Skai and I. I am sorry I pushed you so hard to get well.....I look back and cringe at how painful your life was and how selfish I was to want you to live thru the pain for us. I am happy you are with our loved ones in heaven and know I will see you again. I love and miss you so very much - Shannon

“ I am so sorry to hear that Sandra lost her fight...she was always so courageous, optimistic, witty, and always FUN. Michael and I used to love to laugh with her on the phone. During Michael's illness, she was one of the few who could always get him to laugh. She was the best sister-in-law a girl could have, and I will miss her laughter and kind words. God bless her and the family. You are ALL in my prayers.

There is so much to say about Sandra Milling, you would have to write a book, and there is not enough room on this page but in short, she was the spark, the flame, the guiding light that made her family one of the greatest I have ever known, a loving, caring family that will have the best memories of her life as she shared with all. I worked for many years with Ed, and through that I got to know Sandra, and the family, as well as Ed and Sandra's parents. Ed and Sandra traveled all over the United States, and abroad in his business, it takes an exceptional woman to adapt to this lifestyle and raise a family, Sandra Milling was that woman, and she stood by her man.

God bless her, and I know God will take care of her, if anything needs to be done in heaven, she will get it done!

I miss all of you Millings, and will see you soon, Doug Hamer
