“ I was so sorry to hear about Aunt Sara Margaret's death. She was a beautiful woman on the outside, but her inner self was the most amazing. A beautiful woman who stayed true to her faith. I do hope that in this extremely difficult time that you will find some comfort knowing that she is now with her Heavenly Father, with Jesus face to face. And how happy she must be. When I used to ask her about her age, she would never tell. She was never old, she always impressed me as the woman who aged but never got old. You were blessed to have her as your mom. You are all in my prayers.
