“ It was my honor to see Mrs. Lancaster just 2 days before her passing. Standing beside her devoted son, and my dear friend, Kelly, I was struck by the sense of peace that she had in her sleeping, and knowledge that great love and care had been given to make her last days of life an easier transition. I am certain that she is in Glory now, and am so thankful that her precious Kelly is a man of great faith. With loving thoughts,

“ Kelly,

Mary, Daniel and I are so sorry for the loss of your Mother. What a wonderful son you are to have given all to your precious Mother. She knew she was loved and how wonderful for you to know that she is dancing with your Father again in Heaven. You and your family are in our hearts and prayers. We pray for Grace during this time of mending . You are very special to all of us and we love you very much. Call if you need anything from us. Love you.
