“ I first knew Sara through my grandparents and then later worked with her at Bennett's for several years. She was a no-nonsense person and she really knew her job. Her conversations very often revolved around Harold and Cynthia and their families. You could tell the pride and love that was there. My husband and I also remember Mr. Joe and what a talent he had for growing things. Although we had not seen Sara for many years, she is one of those people you never forget. May God grant you comfort and peace at this time. Linda and Robert Wells

“ Cynthia and Harold, To know her was to love her--and everybody did!!! I will miss her but will always cherish her sweet memory--- especially of her enjoying her 100th birthday party which is my last earthly memory. Love, Clara

“ Harold and Cynthia, We wish we could be there to pay our respects, but please know that you and your families are in our thoughts and prayers. Mrs. Sara and I always had an on going joke with each other when we greeted. We never ask each other how the other one was doing, we always immediately said, "I'm just fine!" Well, today I can hear her say, "I'm just fine!" She is just that, in the presence of our Heavenly Father. Find comfort in that. Our love and prayers,
John

“ Ms Sara was a precious lady, Donald and I thought alot of her. We were honored to call her our friend. Praying for the family in the days ahead as they adjust to life without their love one.

“ To the Stocks Family: Sara Stocks was one of the finest Christian women I have ever known. She truly lived her faith. My parents (O.O. and Elizabeth Simmons) enjoyed so much the friendship of Sara and Joe Stocks. I know you are comforted by the great memories of her and are thankful that she has been reunited with her husband. Sincerely,, Joanne

“ Dear Family:

*Although your heart is heavy
with the sorrow that you bear,
may you be comforted to know
how deeply others care.*

*Ms Sara was a special person to our family (@ 327 Stocks Dairy Rd)
over the years.*

“ *God was to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*
