“ Sara greeting us (my sister and I as young girls traveling alone) with her grand smile after a train ride from Savannah to Albany Georgia. We enjoyed beautiful summer days filled with lots of planned activities...Piggly Wiggly, farmers market, serving at Sara & Hagan's "cocktail parties" swimming at the spring, Elvis Presley movies, fresh butter beans and ripe cantaloupe, embroidery and etiquette skills! Thank you Sara and our awesome God for loving me and giving me strength and patience through these past 16 years. Until we meet again. Sara "Sally"

“ Sara and Hagen were my neighbors and long time bridge friends with my parents, Bob and Kay Seymour. Mom is 96 and doing very well at Morningside Assisted Living and Daddy died at 90 in 2004. I have many fond memories of Sara.

“ We remember Sara from church and helping her during the 1994 flood in Albany. She was such a sweet lady. We left Albany in 1996 and she was so sad to see us leave. I've kept in touch with Sally over the years. Plan to attend the funeral on Sat.
