“ It is so hard to find words to describe how I felt upon learning of both Sarah and Jabari's passing. I remember Sarah all the way back from the time she was in my Pre-school Classroom @ First Baptist Church Preschool & Kindergarten; such a sweet, bright-eyed, quiet, loving child, always anxious to please. She had a beautiful smile that would light up a room. Even then, she seemed to always want to be a mama. God fulfilled that dream and blessed her with little Jabari. She loved that sweet child. They will both be forever membered, loved and missed by family and friends.

John 14:27

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

“ My heart goes out to the family amanda and Jennifer are two angels that I will never forget. Sarah was a great mama and raised Jabari the right way and was always about Jabari. My heart hurts knowing they are gone but I know they are looking down Jabari you surly touched alot of our lives you have always been one of a kind! You and Ivy were best friends and just a like we love you Jabari keep watching down....

“ My little sister My heart I feel like I raised you I have so many memories of you always trying to run behind me and I would get mad I relevant when you cooked the pizza and you left the cardboard on the bottom and almost burnt dad's house down. We had our UPS and downs but I will always love you. My nephew Jabari the only nephew I have I remember when Sarah first called me and told me she was pregnant I remember when she gave birth to you and she bit her lip BC she was so tired of pushing I remember her never wanting to put u down and how you were always so sweet and kind never crying You could light up a room. Jabari I love you more than all the words in all the books I love yall
