“ Miss Sarah was one of the last true Southern Belles of the old South. Her manner was always that of a refined lady. Her intelligence never put her above others. If you could say she had any faults at all, it was her gift of generosity she showed to others. Although there were a couple of family members who took advantage of her goodness, I know this lady will always be a shining example of what true love is. She loved her fellowman more than she loved herself. Her family was very blessed to have a lady in their midst such as she. I hold dear to my heart that she lives with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for all eternity. God bless and keep her family.

We were saddened to hear of your loss, and hope that you know our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. At such times, words somehow seem so shallow and empty, but please know that when we say we hope you turn to us if you need too, that we mean it.

“ My Aunt Sarah was one of the most beautiful and charming women I have ever known. Her passing will leave a big hole in my life, but I know she's gone to a much better place than this one. I am a better person for having known her; she will be sorely missed.

“ Dearest Momma,
You valued truth over approval
Friendship over beauty, wealth or fame.
You shared your gifts and talents wisely always leaving someone better off than when you came.
You found happiness in simple pleasures, the rainbow, not the falling rain.
You held to faith to keep right on believing in miracles that no one can explain.
You looked until you saw the good in others and kept your spirit honest, true and free.
You loved flowers, brought laughter, and made all our dreams come true.
You were the woman only you, my Magnolia Lady, were meant to be.
