

Smith W. Taylor Obituary

May 28, 1916 - March 11, 2003

A native of Brookfield, Mr. Taylor had lived in Albany a number of years. He was retired from the Civil Service. He was a member of First United Methodist Church, the Hudson Malone Sunday School Class and the Sanctuary Choir. Mr. Taylor was a World War II veteran and a Mason.

Tribute Wall

“ Smith W. Taylor Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ He was my Daddy's best friend. I hope they all laugh in heaven.

Donnie Cook - April 03, 2003 at 12:00 AM

“ I will always have very fond memories of Uncle Smith and Aunt Ola. I will never forget the days they presented their proud bundles of joy, Vicki and Charles, to the world and the family. How joyous everybody felt.

The family get-togethers we had will always be fond memories with Aunt Ola's sweet smile and quick wit, and Uncle Smith's sense of humor and beautiful singing voice.

We know Smith and Ola are together now and at peace.

Our love and prayers for comfort to Vicki, Charles, Marcia, Richard, Andy, Sarah, and Kristi.

We love you all.

Aunt Elizabeth, Bob & Betty Futch, Wes, Jessica & children; Jimmy, Soon & children.

Bob & Betty Taylor Futch - March 14, 2003 at 12:00 AM

“ Well, by golly, Smith was very dear to us.

Judge and LeNelle Ivey - March 14, 2003 at 12:00 AM

BF

“ I always enjoyed visiting with your Dad on the way to Magnolia Manor, eating lunch with him at Morningside, and talking while sitting in the rocking chairs at Morningside! My thoughts are with you.

---

Betty Hughes Fagan - March 13, 2003 at 12:00 AM

RC

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.

---

Roy and Beverly Cowart - March 12, 2003 at 12:00 AM

PJ

“ We loved Smith and have missed seeing his face at First Methodist. Paul shared many fishing trip with Smith and has fond memories of these times. Our thoughts are with you and your family during this time. I know these last few weeks have been so very hard for you. In all our darkness God's sun still shines somewhere. We hope it soon shines again in your life.

---

Paul and Nan Jones - March 12, 2003 at 12:00 AM