“ Steve an I worked together at the Albany Police Dept. for over 20 plus years. always pleasant, and smiling. such a pleasing personality. he will surely be missed. I remember when his boys were small, i would always asked him how were the boys and his wife. He would always go to his wallet and show pictures of his family. Steve will never be forgotten. R.I.P. “ Steve and his family, mom ,dad, brother, sister, lived two houses down from us on Radium Spr Rd. When I was a young boy. Steve was three years older. His brother Jr Davis had a 57 Chevy four door they cut (chopped) the back door section out made it the weardist car in Albany. They drove that car all over town, and back in 1969-70-71 your race car had to be jacked up in the back as high as possible and to achieve that the had home made shackles and put a bottle jack over the rear axel and Jack up the body and stretched out the leaf springs. They had the highest rear end in town. Those were the days my experience with Steve and Jr Davis I will remember them both they were very good friends when I grow up. Yours truly Randy Taylor.

Steve was a long time friend of my brother Bubbie Blackburn. He was our house often when I was a child. He was a great guy. I will forever remember the Jimmies Hotdogs and Krystal Burgers on Friday and Saturday nights. I remember his love for Mary. My mom, Eloise, thought the world of Steve.
My prayers for you Mary and the rest of the family.
