“ Robert, I was so sorry to hear of the loss of your father. I know that you were a faithful and dedicated son because several times when I tried to reach you at work, I was told that you were with your father at a doctor's appointment. Please pass our condolence on to your entire family. Patricia Morgans, ROICC, MCLB, Albany, GA

“ Your friends Chuck, Susan and Blake Seaver are sorry to hear of your loss and we are with you in prayer. For Chuck, he looked up to Mr. Carlton. He was a super man in his eyes and taught him alot. He took him to his first farm, and first time deep sea fishing. He was my employer, he lived on South Drive at one time and so did I , I was born in 1963, he started his business in 1963. He is going to be missed.

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love. Where there is injury, pardons. Where there is darkenss, light. Where there is sadness, joy.

O'Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled; to be understood as to be consoled, as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is giving that we recieve, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned and we arepardoned, and it is when dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

*Faith, Hope and Peace be with all of you.

“ Mr. Straud was a good man. I enjoyed very much conducting business with him. He is truly one the last of the "Southern Gentlemen" of the good ol' days. I will miss him. My prayers are with you Mrs. Carlton and family.

“ Straud brought a ray of sunshine with him everywhere he went. I always enjoyed doing business with him and always felt better after seeing him. God bless his family and the good memories he left behind.

“ I will always remember Straud as one of my mentors. From S.S. teacher to deacon to committe member to personal confidanthe was someone I always look to for guidance. He walk the talk and his talk was always one of forgiveness and fellowship; yet he stood firm in what he thought was right. "To live in the hearts you leave behind is not to die." We will miss you, Straud.

“ Mrs. Carlton and Family, JoAnn and I send our sincere condolences. Mr. Carlton was one of my favorite people at Byne Church. He was a mentor and role model to all of us younger men. May the Lord comfort you and hold you up in this difficult time. Blessings, Don and JoAnn Callaway
