“ I remember Sonny all the way back to Law Dames at UGA in the early 1970's. She lived her life in full Technicolor, in stereo at full volume and with a unique personal style. She was never satisfied with anything less than each person's best efforts. We had our first children at the same time, and when Robert was in my Latin class, there was no doubt that he was the apple of her eye.

She was unstintingly generous with her time even when receiving little if any public recognition. I remember her expertise in helping prepare Sarah Philips, Miss JCL, for the 1996 Miss Westover pageant. Sarah won.

I remember talking with Sonny about her own mother's death. It was a lesson for me in how to respond to the grieving in a more compassionate way, and helped me years later as I made peace with the deaths of my own parents.

If there are pageants or galas or grand occasions in Heaven, I'm sure Sonny is in charge or at the least, she's directing the backstage, applying make-up and giving pep-talks to all involved. She will be missed!

“ Dear Gordon & Kids:

Please accept my deepest sympathies for the loss of your loved one. I met Sunny several times, usually with Gordon, and from that contact my impression is that the nickname suited her perfectly. Loss by death is never easy, because you always want that person to be around to laugh with, to cry with, to fuss with and to fuss over, to tell bad jokes to , to watch football with, or to just hang out with. I trust that during this time of bereavment, your love for and memories of Sunny will sustain you and help to ease the pain of her loss.

God bless.

“ I will always remember Susan as a wonderful southern lady who loved her family. She really did light up the room and will be missed by us all.

She taught us to go after what we want, southern lady style...with good manners and respect for others. She didn't take things lying down, she kept on going and would impress everyone with her talents.

My heart goes out to Gordon and his family and to all of the Caldwell family, especially to Delina, Rena and Alexa.

Love to all.
