My wife, Bettye and I met Clyde and Sybil Massey several years back. We immediately became good friends. We all were from Tenn. They were members of the Church there, yet they had not been involved with the Lord. Shorty , Thee rededicated thee lives to Jesus. Each time we visited their home, we developed a love and care fo reach other. They were so hospitable, generous, and loving. Sybil and I were born the same year, but i was 1 month older than she. After Clyde died, she was so faithful to worship, when able. We talked often on the phone. and it was so good to hear her voice. We moved from Albany in 2017, yet continued to talk. She was such a great lady. I'm sorry we could not be there with her last days. We rejoice because of her status with the Lord. For the Christian, death is a gain. Terri, we pray for you and others who sorrow, yet we do this with Hope. God be with you.
