

Sydney Wood Garrison, Jr. Obituary

March 6, 1932 - August 26, 2010

Mr. Garrison, the son of the late Sydney W. Garrison and Ruth Brown Garrison, was born on March 6, 1932 and grew up in Moultrie, Georgia. He graduated from Moultrie High School before attending Georgia Tech in Atlanta. After serving in the US Army in Korea, he returned to the family business, the Moultrie Laundry Dry Cleaning and Linen Service. Later, he lived and worked in the Albany area, and along with his wife Cathy managed Phoebe Foundation's Potter Community Center on Wildfair Road. Sydney was a member of Covenant Presbyterian Church in Albany where he served as an elder. Sydney leaves behind his wife of 31 years, Cathy Hortman Garrison; his sister Ruth Wright of Tennessee; his brother Robert Garrison and wife Jane of North Carolina; his sister Rebecca Walter and husband Larry of Virginia. He also leaves behind three children, Elizabeth Garrison Martin-Griest and husband Doug of Augusta, Georgia; Miki Garrison Thrall and husband Steve of Paris, France; Sydney Wood Garrison, III (Woody) and wife Elizabeth of Oahu, Hawaii. Sydney had five grandchildren, Rhiannon Martin, Anders Martin, Rebecca Thrall Hogan and husband Julien, Sarah Thrall and Jonathan Thrall; and several nieces and nephews. Sydney's wife and children wish to express their gratitude for the love and care shown to him by family, friends, and hospital staff during his long illness.

“ Sydney was such a wonderful cousin. I remember when we were small and he had a pet fox he didn't want us to bother. Robert, Becky, and I were "pests" as far as he was concerned, but we thought he was amazing and wonderful, and of course he was. He was loved, and he'll be missed.

“ Kathy, thank you for giving me Syd's phone number. We had a nice phone visit while he was in Sylvester. Syd always had a big smile for each of us on Wednesday nights at Covenant. Thinking of you, Lallie Benkoski

“ Sid was a really sweet man. My kids will always remember him as one of Santa's helpers. One thing I will always remember about him is that when I visited him, even though he knew he was very sick, he was always upbeat and happy. What an example. May God provide comfort to Cathy and the rest of his family during this time. He definitely will be missed.
