“ Sylvia was my older sister and I learned quite a bit from her. She taught me how to make a bed, how to set the table and how to hang up my towels. She taught me little sayings like 'Bless his pointed little head' or that going to the restroom was actually visiting 'Little Miss Murphy'. The most important thing I learned from her is what it means to be selfless. With a husband and children of her own she was always there for me if I needed to talk. If I needed a place to stay she was there for me. If I needed money out came the $20.00 she hid for emergencies. The best thing about Sylvia was she never ended a conversation without saying ' I Love You'. Words can not express the loss that I feel. I take comfort in knowing that she is finally at rest with her husband of over 50 years. RIP Sylvia - I Love You!

“ We are saddened to hear of your mother's death and relieved for all of you that her struggle has ended. Please accept our condolences. Having you all with her was a comfort to be sure. At this time of loss, may you be comforted by the good memories, your friends and family. We send our thoughts and prayers to Tricia and all her family.

Stephen Wegener on behalf of Tricia's colleagues at the Johns Hopkins Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.
