

Sylvia C. Simmons Obituary

November 10, 1918 - January 13, 2004

Born in Pollard, AL, Mrs. Simmons had lived in Pensacola from 1936 until she moved to Americus in 2000. She was a former and active member of the First Assembly of God in Pensacola and a member of the First Assembly of God in Americus. She was preceded in death by her husband Hildreth Eugene Simmons, Sr. and a grandson Shawn Eugene Mortland.

Tribute Wall

“ Sylvia C. Simmons Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ Sylvia C. Simmons Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ With my Grandmothers passing, it is surely the end of an age. I honestly cannot think of any words that could convey my feelings to her and my grandfathers passing, nor express how much I loved them both. I hear their voices in my head virtually everyday. Their philosophy, spirituality, and approach to life become more a part of me with every breath I take. I will miss them terribly and I've always thought the finest compliment that could be given to me, would be that people could see just a hint of their spirit in me. Thank you to all who were and are a part of our families life.

Glenn Simmons - January 20, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ The passing of each generation marks the beginning of memories for the generations to come. May those of us who knew of the great love shared by Sylvia and Hildreth for the Lord, for each other, and for their families set as our memorial to them a promise to be the bearers of such love in our own generations.

Carl and Ingrid

Carl and Ingrid Backman - January 16, 2004 at 12:00 AM

VB

“ My heart, thoughts & prayers are with. Sylvia was such a blessing over the many years. She is now at home & rest & peace with the one she lived her life for. No more pain or sorrow. May God bless you all & i pray he will fill that vacancy as only he can do. sylvia & eugene were so special even as i was growing up at first assembly on garden & "m" st.

in christian love, Virginia Barentine

Virginia Barentine - January 16, 2004 at 12:00 AM

JP

“ The previous generation is leaving us and that saddens me. It is sad to give up Aunt Sylvia but not only is she now with Uncle Eugene but she is also once again with her older sister, Ruby (my mom). While we may shed tears now & when we remember them on this earth, if our hearts are right with God, we too shall join them again when it is our time. That is what we always need to remember.

John D. Powell - January 15, 2004 at 12:00 AM

SH

“ In 1977 I moved nextdoor to two of the best people in the world. I called them grandma and grandpa. i could not have loved them more had they been my own grandparents. I am glad they are both together in Heaven. I will cherish the memories and will greatly miss you, grandma. I love you, Sharon

Sharon Hogan - January 15, 2004 at 12:00 AM

AL

“ Trudy -- I was so sorry to hear about your mother's passing. Just know that my heart, my thoughts and my Prayers are with you and your family.

*In Christian love,
Anita Lastinger*

Anita Lastinger - January 15, 2004 at 12:00 AM

LC

“ We loved your mother and are very sad at her death, however she is now with Eugene and I know she is happy. May God bless you and give you peace.

Larry & Joan (Kirkland) Cooper - January 15, 2004 at 12:00 AM