“ Terry you will always be loved and remembered. I can remember the days we worked at Albany Health Care together. The many nights we would tear the doors of the Legion down on a Friday night. To your husband, children, mother, sister and brothers you have my deepest sympathy. I am so blessed the Lord shared you with us for 36 years. Again you will truly be missed.

“ Terry was the officer who handled my daughters accident that happened on the same day my husband went back into the hospital with cancer. I remember so clearly what an emotional time it was for my daughter and myself. The next day the one thing that stood out was how kind Terry was in the handling of the accident. She was calm and wanted to make sure we were okay and was not in any hurry to leave us. I was so impressed by her professionalism and should have written a letter to her commander but it was such a busy time. I am so sorry I am writing this here. I know she must have been a wonderful wife and mother because she radiated a kindness all around her. Our prayers go out to the family on your great loss.

“ Terry worked with me at J.Leek Assoc. back in 2005. I enjoyed working with her for two to four months but it was fun. She went to the police department and would still come by in her squad car and visit. I saw Terry this past July at Phobe Putney Hospital we talked and embrace. She was happy since she had just been married for a month. I would see her over Albany working cases and she would always speak to me. The world will miss this fine lady.

Thanks for the memories Terry

“ Terry was always such a friendly, dedicated person. She always smiled when you looked in her direction. She was quiet and would only speak when spoken to. I will miss seeing that smile each day that I go to pick up my son from the Boys and Girls Club. I am sure that she will be greatly missed by her family, friends, and the community. May she always be alive in our memories.

“ Who can find a virtuous woman (a woman of strength)? She is like a rare gem. Precious stones are precious and costly because they are so rare. If you could go out along the roadside and collect hundreds of rubies anytime you wanted to, then they would not be worth much. It is the rare, hard to find gems that are worth so much. Also, for some reason God made most common stones unattractive; yet He made most rare stones very beautiful and brilliant and lustrous. The virtuous woman is a beautiful woman, not necessarily outwardly, but certainly inwardly (see Prov. 31:30). She is not only a rare gem but a beautiful gem.

“ I remember as she was Terry growing up, whenever I saw her she was always smiling and she had such a beautiful smile to match her beautiful personality. One thing that stands out to me is sometimes when I would see her, we would discuss her mother's garden. Her family has my heartfelt condolences for a flower we may feel that plucked too soon, but God knows best. R.I.P. Officer Terry Lewis Flewing.

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.
I can remember Terry in school and she always kept that pretty smile at all times. May God comfort each of you. She will be deeply missed.

LaKia Moore-Spencer - Albany, GA - November 02, 2011 at 12:00 AM “ Terry, such a pleasure and honor to have known you and worked with you. Thank you for your cheerful heart and always smiling.....thank you for backing us both up on calls....thank you for being a wonderful and honorable person and officer. Your integrity and honor will never be forgotten. I cannot tell you what a difference you made in our lives....we will never forget what you did for us (and our family) a few years ago....not to mention the days we shared on the street! There are very few people left in this world who do the right thing like you always did. You were a treasure to this world! Rest peacefully our sister!

The Final Inspection

The policeman stood and faced her God, which must always come to pass.

She hoped her shoes were shining just as brightly as her brass.

"Step forward now, policeman. How shall I deal with you?

Have you always turned the other cheek?

To my church have you been true?

The policeman squared her shoulders and said.

"No, I guess I ain't because those of us who carry a badge can't always be a Saint."

I've had to work most Sundays and at times my talk is rough,

and sometimes I've been violent,

because the streets are awfully tough.

But I never took a penny that wasn't mine to keep...

though I worked a lot of overtime when the bills got to steep.

And I never passed a cry for help

though at times I shook with fear, and sometimes, God forgive me, I've wept tears.

I know I don't deserve a place among the people here.

They never wanted me around except to calm their fear.

If you've a place for me here, Lord, it needn't be so grand,

I never expected or had too much, but if you don't...I'll understand"

There was a silence all around the throne where the Saints had often trod.

As the policeman waited quietly for the judgment of her God.

"Step forward now, policeman.

You've borne you burdens well.

Come walk a beat on Heaven's streets.

You've done your time in Hell"
