“ My condolences to Lisa, Jack and all the Morrell family. Terry was one of my best friends. For years I was one of his customers but it was much more than that. He, Lisa, Jack and Becky treated me as part of their family. We had so many good times over the years. I never saw Terry angry, he was always in control whatever the situation. I will always remember the wonderful times we had together hunting, fishing, and just having fun. He will always have a special place in my heart. God bless you all.
