“ Jimmy, Georgia, Vicki, Tammy & Perry,
Your mother was one of the finest women I ever met, I can still remember the first time I met her. When I lived in Albany and she made her "bean soup" she would sometimes make me a pot, I loved it.
My thoughts and prayers are with each of you, in this time of adjustment in your lives. Please be there for your wonderful father, as I know you will. I love each of you. GOD Bless and be with each of you

“ Dear Perry, Tammy and the Andros family,

You are in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. May knowing that this wonderful woman is with God right now give you peace. Father Anthony held a memorial service for Theodora in Athens on Sunday, and we could see her memory touched many hearts at St. Philothea.

May her memory be eternal.
