

Theodoric Neal, Jr. Obituary

August 14, 1923 - December 24, 2009

He was the son of the late Theodoric Charles Neal, Sr. and Mary Louise Crowell Neal Morris of Charlotte, NC. He was predeceased by his wife Nan McCoy Rogers Neal and his brother William W. Neal. He is survived by his wife Sara Ann Chitty Neal and his devoted cousin Jean Beckham as well as his sons and their wives, William Benjamin and Joyann Neal of Albany; Charles and Caroline Neal of Wilmington, NC; and Joseph Crowell Neal of Holly Springs, NC; Grandchildren include Leslie Neal McDaniel, Charles Wade Neal, Caroline L. Neal, Caitlin Sara Nan Neal, Lydia Carraway Neal, and Marie Crowell Neal; Great-grandchildren are Elizabeth and Lindsey McDaniel. He was supported greatly by Nona, Eugene, Tripp and Andy Jernigan. Born August 14, 1923, Ted was raised in Charlotte, NC, attended the Citadel, and served in the Pacific during WWII. He was a resident of Albany, GA for over 55 years where he was initially an insurance agent and ultimately attended the University of GA and became a pharmacist. He was a devoted member of two churches, Covenant Presbyterian and First Baptist Church of Albany, the former of which he was a founding member and served as Elder, Sunday School Teacher and loyal choir member. Mr. Neal will be remembered for his love of gardening, his enthusiasm for music, his enjoyment of Christmas, his ever-present smile, and his devotion to his wives and family. The family would like to especially thank all family and friends who supported T.C. throughout the years, particularly the members and staff of First Baptist Church and of Covenant Presbyterian Church, and long time supporters Margie Hill and Suzie Boney.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Mr. Neal's death. I grew up on Acker across the street from the Neal family. He was a very nice man and will be missed by many.

“ Although we'd not seen Mr. Neal in many years, he has always been part of our memories. He was at Albany Drug about the time we married and helped us many times. He was kind, considerate and cheerful. Our sympathies to the entire family. May God grant you peace and comfort at this time and in the days ahead.

“ I enjoyed singing with Ted in the church choir at Covenant Presbyterian. I sincerely appreciate his christian guidance in the church for all the years I was a part of the Covenant Presbyterian Family (app. 1966 - 2004). Ted had a smile that would rub off on you and a jolly laughing chuckle. I also enjoyed hearing him sing with the Senior Choir at First Baptist Church of Albany. He was a humble CHRISTIAN Gentleman.
