I will miss you deeply. You were such a lovely lady. I will miss seeing you out on the lanes bowling with us. I know we only bowled for some weeks on the same team and I enjoyed being on your team. I know how you loved your bowling and hated when you could not make your strikes. You would get so irritated and upset but you were helping me to learn how to bowl along the way. You know I am a horrible bowler but you would motivate me to keep trying. I will keep bowling in your honor for as long as God lets me no matter how bad I am. I remember you saying one day that when it's time to go then it's time to go. I don't know why God took you from us so early, but I know that when God calls then you have no choice but to go. I guess your destiny here on earth has been fulfilled and our father has called you home because you have done a wonderful job. I appreciate every little thing you have done for me and taught me in our short time together. My condolences go out to your family from mine. Heaven has gained another beautiful angel. Say hello to my mom when you get there. You can't miss her they say I look just like her. R.I.P. beautiful angel.
