“ Will always remember my time in the "DeMarino" household as a teenager, Mama "De" always rolled the luncheon meats in the tupperware container, and made me eat my first artichoke!!!! Quiet Papa "De" looked the other way when Barbara and I had a little too much on a New Year's Eve, probably around '69 or '70. Also remember him holding my first born baby, just like a proud grandpa! Many times we quietly slinked past his bedroom going to the sanctuary of the third floor girl's room where we giggled half the night. Oh, and of course, there was the infamous "Caddy" with the control on the front of the car, according to brother, Joe! Thanks for all the wonderful memories, I love You All. Prayers to Mama "De" today and always. Love You All DeMarino Family
