“ Though I haven't seen Tom in a while, I remember him as a customer at my boat dealership from many years back. I serviced his boats & motors. Tom was actually a customer of my Dad's when he was alive and owned the store, so our friendship goes back many, many years. I remember Tom as quiet, easy going and a pleasure to do business with. Tom was a good man. No better legacy can a man leave. Good fishing, Tom.

“ Tom was in the Herald Composing Room while I worked in Advertising from 1971 until 1982. He was a close friend of my big brother, John Garey. Tom was a good man to know and a friend. He was a guy you could count on when things needed fixing. My prayers go out to his family and loved ones.

“ Tom and I worked together at The Herald from 1965 until 1976. I remember him as one of the really nice guys. He was always pleasant and easy to get along with. Since he was in the composing room and I was in the news room, some times we "buted heads." He was easy going and good to work with.
