“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I had the pleasure of working under Tom's direction in Pampers on a special project. Some thought he was a "hard nose". I was surprised I didn't see him that way. He just wanted to get it right. I looked at him as a walking encyclopedia.

“ Sandy, how very sorry to learn about Tom. Just read it in the paper yesterday and was unable to attend the memorial service. Total shock is the word, even though its been some time since I've seen either of you. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers in these tough days. Al

“ Sandy,
I read the Sunday paper this afternoon and saw Tom’s obituary. I too am a P&G retiree – a few years older than Tom but I retired later in ’06.
We’ve met once or twice in the past.
I grew up in the Paper Plant while Tom was always on the Diaper side but we first worked together when we both worked in the Rely operation. After Rely, Tom returned to Diapers & I returned to Paper but just a few years later I was assigned a personnel manager assignment that I held for 17 years and so Tom & I had frequent contact from that point forward. Like most of the old time “Proctoids” who gave a darn, we argued a lot (never personal) and laughed even more. Tom was a “good Joe” who also was blessed with strong technical skills.
I am very sorry for your loss.
