

Thomas J. Southwell Obituary

February 28, 1928 - June 26, 2006

Mr. Thomas Julian Southwell, 78, died on June 26, 2006 at his home, Delmar Gardens of Gwinnett, in Lawrenceville, GA. He was born on February 28, 1928 in Doles, GA. He graduated from Woodrow Wilson College of Law in Atlanta, GA in 1951. He was employed by Engineering and Equipment Company in Albany, GA as credit manager for 35 years, finally retiring in 2000 from their Panama City, FL branch. He was member of the Lutheran Church of our Savior. Mr. Southwell loved to read his paper from cover to cover every morning and watch the news and the Georgia Bulldogs. He loved to dance and was always the life of the party. He was crowned Mardi Gras King this year at Delmar Gardens on his birthday, Fat Tuesday, February 28th. Thomas loved the beach, living there 14 years before joining his two children in the Atlanta area. He will be greatly missed by his family and many friends. He is survived by his daughter, Kathy Southwell Christopher, her husband Ben Christopher and beloved grandson Matthew Benjamin Christopher of Big Conoc, GA, and son Gregory Dean Southwell, his wife Patricia Halstead Southwell of Lilburn, GA. He was preceded in death by his loving wife Betty Ann Southwell and granddaughter Amanda Ann Christopher.

“ I was sorry to see that your dad had passed. I don't know if you remember me, but Thelma Taylor (your grandmother) was my dad's sister. I have very fond memories of visiting Aunt Thelma and Lee when they had that old fish camp in Alabama on the river. I remember sitting and listening to all the "stories" she had to tell. I love telling folks about my aunt who lived in a school bus by the river. Those were very special times!

“ Kathy,

I enjoyed your Daddy for many years. It always tickled me when he ordered, Doahs and water, that's what I drink and that is how I pronounce it.

Tommy loved the Garth Brooks song, "I Got Friends In Low Places", I played it for him whenever he came in until we wore it out. Without fail everytime, his arm went flying into the air swinging, with his finger clicking to the music.

I am very grateful for the time we spent together several weeks ago.

A golden heart stopped beating

Hard working hands at rest

God broke our hearts to prove to us he only takes the BEST! My Deepedt Sympathy,

Karon
