“ Your Dad took care of my cars right up to the day I left Des Moines in 1999. I remember his kindness, caring, and his smile. And I remember you too. Cherish the memories, have faith, and know others care. Patty Bloomcamp

“ Tom was an extraordinary fellow. We lived just northeast of the station and he took care of our cars and I took care of his hair (I was his barber) and we'd fib to each other about our golf games. He kept Jays place afloat , I really hated to see him leave but I'm sure he was much happier with his new winters . He can now be with the Mrs and they can be happy forever. Lynn and Joan Clary
