“ To the family of Thornton Cooper:
Mr. Cooper was always a favorite of mine. I knew him through C&S Bank; then dealt with him when he was selling his home. He always missed
Virginia and I am please they are together.
Know our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“It's hard to deal with the lost of a loved one. There is not much that people can say to ease the pain. However, I hope that you all (the Cooper Family and Friends) know that there are people who care and people who will send prayers to heaven for your family during this hard time. Hold fast to each other and hold fast to your good memories!!!
