

Timothy Andrew "Andy" Cooper

January 12, 1958 - September 20, 2020

Timothy Andrew "Andy" Cooper, 62, of Albany, Ga. lost his battle to glioblastoma on September 20, 2020 at his home surrounded by his wife and children.

Andy was born in Columbus, Ga. on January 12, 1958 to Gary "GC" and Sarah "Sissy" Cooper. He graduated from Westover High School in 1976 and Georgia Tech in 1981 with a degree in Building Construction. He is married to Lindsey Giles Cooper.

Shortly after college, Andy moved back to Albany and began Gary Cooper and Sons Construction. Andy held board positions on the Homebuilders Association as well as State Licensing Board for builders. He was a member of Porterfield United Methodist Church and Rotary International.

Andy was a devoted and loving husband, who enjoyed spending time with his family and friends and could often be found running or riding his bike. Being an avid athlete, Andy participated in multiple running, cycling, and triathlon events including becoming a double Ironman. Andy and Lindsey found much comfort and peace at their "Happy Place" in Laguna Beach, FL.

Andy's life seemed too short to many, but those who were touched by him understand that the quality of his existence far exceeded the quantity of time in which he lived. His loving and contagious smile and laugh brought much joy to his family and friends.

Those desiring may send memorials to Fuller Center for Housing, Inc. 701 S. Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd, Americus, GA. 31719 or the Glioblastoma Foundation P.O. Box 62066 Durham, NC 27715 glioblastomafoundation.org

There will be a Celebration of Life to be announced at a later date due to covid restrictions.

“ I was heartbroken to hear this news. Andy was my first boss out of college, and he treated me as if I was his younger, very naive, brother. He was always so gracious, patient and kind. May God bless him and his family and I am grateful that I had the pleasure of knowing him.

“ I first met Andy when he was a Phi Delt at GA Tech. My best friend Sharon said “you have to meet this guy, he’s the one.” I thought she was nuts, up until I met Andy. It was love at first sight. He instantly became my best friend too. His beautiful smile, his contagious laugh, and his quick wit, made him a joy to be around. He married my best friend Sharon, and they went on to have three of the most beautiful children that I had ever seen. His mother Sissy, and father GC, made me feel like part of the Cooper family up until their passing. They understood the importance of old friendships, as did Andy. I had the privilege of seeing Andy at the weddings of two of his children. We always picked up right where we left off, no matter how long the time had passed in between seeing each other. He was a great father, he loved his children so much and wasn’t shy about boasting his love and adoration of them. Andy and Sharon raised three of the nicest human beings you could ever meet. I will always miss Andy and his friendship. My heart goes out to the children, their spouses and significant others (Hannah :) I’m grateful that Andy and Sharon continued to have a deep friendship for many years, despite their split as a married couple. She cherished that friendship and my heart is broken for her loss. Her grandchildren with Andy are her greatest joy, and the Andy Cooper legacy lives on through them.

To Danny, Andy’s adored younger brother, I am so sorry for your loss. Andy loved you so much, and we always talked about you and your lovely wife Sharon, whenever we had the chance to catch up. My deepest condolences go out to his older brother Mike, and his children. Andy loved his brothers. I will forever miss Andy. To Lindsey who came along in the last few years of Andy’s life, I’m so sorry for your loss. Andy was pure joy in the 30+ years that I knew him. He will be missed by so many.

“ To Lindsey and Andy's children and grandchildren:
Andy was an amazing guy, talented, likeable and always had a huge smile on his face.
He loved people and he adored his precious wife and children.
We, in Millsbee Village, will miss him so. He was a huge addition to our neighborhood and always willing to do whatever needed to be done to enhance the neighborhood.
Sincerest sympathy, sweet Lindsey. Know we are all here to help you get through these tough months ahead.

Love, Patsy Martin

“ That smile of Andy's was infectious. And no words can ease the hurt not having him close. I pray the memories will move your family to continue to live a life that he would want for each of you. Know that we care. Love and hugs. Pam J
