“ Papa, there were so many things that I wanted to tell you but I could not seem to get them out. I now know just how blessed I was to have been able to go and do things with my Papa and I will always remember the times we had fishing or just sitting around talking about anything that crossed our minds. You will always have a special place in my life that no one else can fill. You taught me not to take anything for granted and that lesson will stay with me for the rest of my life.

“ My memories of you being there every Christmas when I was little will always be special to me. You taught me to be proud of who I was where I came from. I have so many special times that make me smile when I think of you. Even though you spoke very few words, I knew you loved me.
My tribute to you is to live my life and to teach my children to live theirs so that we can fish in the River Jordan. I love you and will always think happy thoughts of being blessed with a Papa Troy.
