

Velma O. Tharpe Obituary

November 19, 1919 - February 12, 2011

Velma Taylor Hall Tharpe, 91, of Panama City, FL, formally of Albany died Saturday, February 12, 2011. Her funeral services will be 3 PM, Thursday February 17, 2011 at Crown Hill Mausoleum with Elder W.H. Phillips officiating. The family will receive friends from 2 PM until the funeral hour of 3 PM and following the service they will receive friends at the home of Steve Hall, 3717 Gateway Ave., Albany 31721. Mrs. Tharpe was native of Turner County, GA. She was a past resident of Moultrie and a long-time resident of Albany before relocating to Panama City FL. She was of the Baptist faith, a home maker, a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and a second mother to many. She was preceded in death by her husband, William "Bill" Tharpe, Jr. She is survived by five children: Forrest Hall of Panama City, FL, Stephen "Steve" Hall (Nanci) of Albany, Beth Tharpe Holcombe (Jeff), of Saint Simons Island, Becky Tharpe, and William "M. Tharpe, both of Panama City, FL; ten grandchildren, several great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and close friends.

Tribute Wall

JS

“ May God bless your wonderful family ... Velma was wonderful blessing to me and my family ...many precious memories ... she will be greatly missed by all who knew her

Judy Wheelless Sharpe - February 16, 2011 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Velma was a wonderful person. I always enjoyed talking and visiting with her. God Bless you!

Sandra Spence Breedlove - February 14, 2011 at 12:00 AM

WH

“ Both Sheila and I share your grief at the loss of a wonderful and kind mother and aunt. I am glad we made the time to visit her last year. It was always a joy to hear from her during the Christmas Holidays. We will miss her. I had hopes of coming to the funeral but both money and time are unavailable and I apologize for that. Please know we are keeping your family in our prayers.

William Hall - February 14, 2011 at 12:00 AM