“ Ginger will be sorely missed by me and many other of her life long friends. She never failed to bring laughter to all of us with her quick wit and wonderful sense of humor. She loved her friends,her family, her pets, and totally adored her great niece,her namesake "Little V". She was a loyal daughter, friend, sister, and aunt and I know smiling and oh so happy to greet in heaven the parents she loved so dearly.

“ Ginger was a loving person especially for Whitey-Whitums (cat) and Precious (dog). In her last confused years that never faltered. She was so tender hearted - after going hunting and killing a bird in young adulthood, she never knowingly ate any kind of bird again. Ginger had an affinity for Christmas sweaters. After being formally dressed so much in her earlier years she did not like anything but casual attire. She loved sunshine and watching nature. Her great niece Virginia had won her heart and having no children she was very happy to have that lovely namesake. Thinking that Ginger is now in the arms of her beloved parents gives consolation for she missed them every day. Peace and love to you, Ginger.
