

Wallace N. Moses

November 11, 1938 - November 29, 2021

Wallace "Wally" Moses was a caring father, grandfather, husband, brother and friend. Sadly, he left us on Monday, November 29, 2021 at age 83. He fought off symptoms of COPD and emphysema for many years and displayed great courage in doing so.

He was born to Caroline and Jack Moses on November 11, 1938 in Louisville, GA. After graduating from Americus High School and the University of Georgia, Wally began his career at Vogue Casuals (and later on Jasons) in Americus and Albany.

Along with his father, Wally helped grow Jasons into a regional retail powerhouse adding locations in Albany, Atlanta, Tallahassee and Jacksonville. Jasons gained notoriety in the 1970's and '80's as they provided the inaugural gowns for Rosalyn Carter when Jimmy Carter became Governor of Georgia, and then later President of the United States.

Wally loved any kind of fishing, and spent many a summer with Jo in Alaska fishing for salmon. And oh did he love the UGA Bulldogs. Wally joyfully spent his last Saturday on earth watching his bulldogs take it to Georgia Tech.

Wally had a larger than life personality and was a true character. To know him was to love him, and we all often joked that he never met a stranger.

Wally is survived by his loving wife Joanne Walker Moses; children Howard Moses and Alisa Bittner (and husband David Bittner); and grandchildren Alexander & Michael Moses, and Rachel & Max Bittner.

Wally will be sorely missed by everyone who knew him and loved him.

“ I have memories of him touching the young girls that worked for him in Albany inappropriately.

“ I have many fond memories of Wally (and remember his father) as well. Our mother (Bettie Carow) did their window display for a time. Spent many happy days visiting with them and also doing a little shopping there as well. Wally was always very kind and so much fun to be around. RIP Wally Moses💜

“ Wally had a great sense of humor accompanied by that twinkle in his eye. Always smiling , usually laughing and full of life. He colluded with my mother and Kim Callaway to dress me as they saw fit regardless of my raised eyebrow . The man was persuasive ! I babysat for Alisa and Howard and send them both my love and deepest sympathy. ❤️❤️ Prayers and sympathy for the entire Moses family.

“ What was there NOT to love about Wally Moses??? He wrote the book on Customer Service when he owned Jason's and knew every customers' preferences and would always be honest, in a diplomatic way if the garment didn't make you look glamorous.

As friends of precious JoAnne before and after they married was such a blessing to me.

Our lunches and dinners were always those times we looked forward to just talking and enjoying warm fellowship of those who truly cared about each other.

Wallace and Joanne were a pair made only in Heaven. They enjoyed life and adored each other.....

Joanne, we are here for you, sweet friend, and we will always treasure the friendship we shared with precious Wallace Moses.
