

Walter Y. Rhyne Obituary

March 27, 1939 - May 24, 2004

A native and lifelong resident of Albany, he attended local schools and graduated from Albany High School in 1957. Walter attended Emory at Oxford, Emory University, and graduated from Mercer University. Walter was an Army veteran and served in Vietnam. Following his military service, he returned to Albany and worked with the Albany/Dougherty County traffic engineering department. Walter was a member of the First Baptist Church and the Walter Burt American Legion Post 30.

Tribute Wall

“ Walter Y. Rhyne Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ Sorry to hear about Mr. Rhyne i am late to hear,he was a good friend and person,its been years since we had contact. Joe Mc.

Joe Mckinnon - June 21, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Rosemary, While visiting this site to respond to David Garrison, saw your announcement of Walter's passing...just wanted you to know I'm thinking of you & yours. Please give us a call on your next visit to Jacksonville - we're just down the road in St. Augustine. Or, Gordon & I could meet you in Jax for lunch. Fondly, Annelle

Annelle Griffin - May 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ A lot of his family won't know who I am. I am Butch and Diane Laster's grandchild. I am Debbie's oldest, Heather Stroud. I knew Walter as Uncle Walter and I can't believe he is gone. I found out this morning. My deepest symphy to the family. I hope he knew I loved him as if he was my own true kin. Thanks for the time, I love you Uncle Walter.

heather - May 26, 2004 at 12:00 AM