“ Hi Wayne. Have been thinking of you as always especially these days of Christmas. Christmas has come and gone again and I am amazed at how quickly time is passing these days. I have a new granddaughter and it breaks my heart to know you will never meet her as you never got to meet her sister either. Life is truly too short to do all that we want to do in it. I just wanted to stop by and see your picture and tell you that I love you and miss you so much, I will never forget you dear brother. I love you! Vonnie

“ My goodness Wayne, it has already been two years since you left us and I can't hardly believe it. It still seems like just yesterday and it still hurts just as much. I miss you so much and will always love you. Vonnie

“ HAPPY BIRTHDAY WAYNE!
Happy Birthday dear brother. Today was a little hard for me as memories came flooding back to me today of birthdays of long ago when you always let me stick my finger into your birthday cakes and you would have a great big smile on your face and a look of total delight as I liked the icing from my finger. You were always so sweet to me and I miss you so much. This will be your first birthday in Heaven and I hope you enjoyed it very much. I will never forget you dear brother. Vonnie

“ Dear Brother, the holidays have come and gone and they were just not the same with you gone. We have not spent many holidays together in the past 40 years but the memories of the ones we did spend together are just as fresh in memory as when they happened. I thank God everyday for precious memories. I love you and miss you so much. Vonnie

“ Mrs. Vicki, the picture you picked of Mr. Wayne is wonderful and the background on his eulogy looks like a great reminder of his love of the outdoors. I wish you and your family and grandchildren the best of luck and hope for the coming years. We sure did miss you at the office! I'm sorry I never got a chance to meet Mr. Wayne, but I talked to him on the phone several times and he sounded like a wonderful man...I know he was.

“ I would like everyone who reads this to know that Wayne was one of the sweetest brothers a girl could ever have. He was always very protective of me when we were growing up and even as a young boy knew how to be a man. Wayne showed tremendous courage and dignity during his battle with his illness and I can only hope that if ever it falls upon me to fight such a battle, that I will be as courageous and dignified as Wayne was. I am proud to say that Wayne was my brother and will love him forever. I know that I will be with Wayne again someday and we will never have to part again and I am looking forward to that day. Wayne and I both accepted Chirst as our Savior as teenagers and have the assurance of eternal life with Chirst. Wayne has simply gone on ahead of me but, one day I will be with him again. I hope all who read this will take the time to learn about Jesus Christ and what it means to be forgiven of your sins and have eternal life and join me and Wayne one day. My love to all, Vonnie.
