“ I knew Bill for many years, both of us being in the Men's Bible Class at Porterfield, also in the Golden K Kiwanis club. He was one of my favorite people of all time. Though a tough marine, he was a gentle person in every way and held to his beliefs. Though it has been a while since I had seen Bill, I did have the opportunity to talk with him by phone occasionally. I'll miss him.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Bill at Firestone. It was always a great guy to be around. He has been missed since he moved from Albany and will continue to be missed. My prayers go out to the family.
