“ Granddaddy, I'm almost a 1000 miles away from home but I can still hear your last words to me when I left that morning, I Love You. In my eyes, you were what every man should strive to be. The goodness of your heart and gentleness of your soul was a light to any life you ever touched. I'll never forget being with you on your last fishing trip at the hunting land with Uncle Bill. Little did I know that the first birthday cake that I had at my house would be the last. You were always the favorite part of my childhood memories and my rock in later life. I know you got that Mansion when you walked through those gates. I'll miss you always and this world was a better place because you were here. Love Jan & Tommy

“ Dear family, Uncle Wade was a true Southern gentleman, he always showed his love to all of us and we will miss him greatly. We are very glad that we got to be with him at Sheryl's swearing in ceremony, he was in great spirits and was very proud of her as we all were. We like to think of all the older Barksdale siblings being together once more in Heaven. with love, Billy and Pat
