

William Isaac Coleman Obituary

Mr. William Isaac (Bill) Coleman 84 of 248 Hatchcock Road in Doerun, GA died July 12, 2007 at his residence. He was born July 22, 1922 on the Coleman family farm to the late Terrell C. and Julia Perryman Coleman. As a young man Mr. Coleman began to farm the land on which he was born until the call of duty was made for him to serve his country. He proudly served in the United States Navy during World War II, serving in the Atlantic and the Pacific. Following his military service, Mr. Coleman returned to his passion, which was farming on the place where his heart always was, his family farm. Mr. Coleman grew as a young man and met his first love, Elizabeth Daniels to whom he wed. Together they reared their family and on the farm, many wonderful memories were made for his children. Bill and Elizabeth instilled in their children the values they were taught which was God, family and hard work. Mrs. Elizabeth Daniels Coleman died in 1989, and in 1995 he wed his second love, Audrey Hatcher affectionately known as Miss Audrey to whom he truly cherished. Miss Audrey was a godsend as she was a devoted, loving, and caring wife. Other survivors include his daughter, Libby Coleman Nichols and her husband Steve of Doerun, three sons, Wm. I.
