“ Dr. Culpepper was my advisor while I was at Emory School of Dentistry. I was kind of a wild child, being from California, so he knew how to work with me as a junior dental student. The news of his passing saddens me yet I know he lived a full, rich life. See you on the other side, Dr. Culpepper. Wendy Bailey - class of D'85

“ Former student who through the years hence, as an oral pathologist and dental school professor at Tufts, greatly appreciated my education at Emory and particularly from Dr. Culpepper and his dept. faculty. They were excellent instructors and great mentors. He was an outstanding clinician, scholar and gentleman. Please take comfort in the great legacy he has left behind.
