“ Bill was a dear, dear man and we were privileged to call him our friend. We would still see him occasionally even though we moved to Athens 8 years ago. We remember the first time we took him to our favorite Mexican restaurant, he had never had Mexican food before and we helped him order--he liked it! This became our regular meeting place with him and friends when we returned to Albany for visits. He so loved his family and we know you will miss him. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

Fondly,

Jack and Carolyn Duclos
