“ I have many fond memories growing up with Uncle Ralph. he and my Dad, Steve Boone were best friends and hunting and fishing partners. my first dove hunt was with Uncle Ralph at Butcher's Dairy near Smithfield.

Uncle Ralph was one of those :“arger than life” characters that every young man ought to have the priviledge to know. He truly llied life with a zest and passion, especially when it came to fishing and hunting.

During the summers when i was out of school, Uncle Ralph would stop by our house in Sylvester on Wednesday mornings and pick me up to ride with him in his tire and battery truck to Fitzgerald. He would buy me lunch, and i would unload the old batteries and tire carcasses. my eal “pay” however was beign regaled bystories and adventures. I probably learned more about my dad than he would have wanted me to know.

“Ralphy,” i also remember those times that you and i spent together, doing things like riding with the Leesburg police as they made their rounds.

*Most Sincerely,
Billy Boone*

“ We have many fond memories of Ralph and Hazel. WE met in 1972 and enjoyed many hours of fellowship. She taught us how to cook many holiday dishes like the Fruitcake cookies and much more. Eli, just know that our prayers are with you and your family. You are very much loved. The Bruce Owens family

“ Ralph, so sorry to hear about your parents. Tried to make it to funeral, but has medical test. By the time I got to cemetery, you were gone. Guess you really feel like an orphon now. It is hard to loose your parents, no matter how old you may be. Just wanted you to know I was thinking about you.
