“ Bandi,
I am so sorry about your father....just read about it tonight...He was always so helpful at the tax office...I remember one night he called for me to come and let him in his house cause he had left his keys inside....there was another agents lock box on the house

“ Greg and I were so sorry to hear about your dad. Having just lost Greg's dad, we certainly can relate to how all of you must feel. Lean on the Lord for all your strength. He will see you through this. May you and your family feel the comfort of the Lord now and in the days to come. Know that each of you are in our prayers.
