“ It was the summer of '71. I had just graduated from high school and got a summer job selling Bible reference books door-to-door to earn money to attend Iowa State University that fall. The book company shipped me far away from Iowa all the way to Georgia; mostly so the homesick salesmen could not easily get back home. Lila didn't buy a book the day we met, but a lasting friendship began that day on her doorstep. She was my second Mother. I was invited for several meals and grew an attachment to Merv and Elaine as well. I still have and use the leather bound Scofield Reference Bible she gave to me at the end of the summer. She signed with Proverbs 3:6 "In all ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy path." Lila and Elaine flew to Iowa to visit and made friends with my parents as well. I feel honored to have known her and her family. She served our Father well and is now with Him in paradise. I will see her again someday.

“ Craig, Merv and Elaine, my prayers are with you. This is a sad day to learn of your Mom's passing, but I know heaven truly has another angel. I was blessed for many years with her care and love when I stayed in your childhood home. You knew me better as "Vickie" Neugent in those days. I was honored with your Mom's handling of my wedding reception and will always have a fond memory of that to add to the many others. It has only been a few years ago that I ran into your Mom while I was in Albany as I have on a few occasions before. It was always a blessing to see her. Please know that I am thinking of your and remembering you in my prayers during this time. I told my mother, Alice Batten White, a while ago of your Mom's passing and she also wishes to let you know of her prayers and sympathies as well.

“ Dear Uncle Willie:

I just received the somber message of your wife's departure from this life. How incredibly sad and abandoned you must feel. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow.

Though we don't keep in personal contact as much as I'd like too, I feel compelled to write a few words to let you know what an impression you and your wife made when we had our family gatherings. Your relationship was always an inspiration to me. Your example of care for each other proved to me that real love does exist. It was a secret dream of mine to find a mate who would seem as close to me as I felt you and my aunt were. It brings tears to my eyes to comprehend the loss you must feel.
