She was born Winona Lucille Hester on August 28, 1934 in Waterloo, GA to Sallie Lou Griffin Hester and Samuel Blake Hester. She was the salutatorian of the Irwinville High School Class of 1951, and was proud to be a varsity basketball player all four years of high school. She lived at the Presbyterian Home (now the Village) in Summerville, SC; Antebellum Grove in Warner Robins, GA; and the Oaks Nursing Home in Marshallville, GA. She enjoyed her time playing bingo and spending time with fellow residents, and her family is grateful to the many wonderful caregivers that tirelessly took care of Winona over the years.

Winona dearly loved her family. She is predeceased by her mother, her father, her brother Harlon Hester, and both of her husbands, Charles J. Dill, Jr. and Glenn Martin. She was definitely a lovely lady. I knew her when she was married to one of my favorites, Charlie Dill, and they were a great couple. I will keep their daughters and families in my prayers. Joanne Stripling Smith

“ Teresa, I am so sorry for your loss! As we discussed - she is enjoying ever lasting life now and with those that she has missed for so long! I pray that you will feel the comfort of God through those who love you. I am always here for you and will continue to do whatever possible for you and Noah! You have certainly carried your cross here on earth and I pray that Jesus will take that cross from you and allow you to enjoy your life as he continues to stay by your side. I wonder if she has met Jim yet! I am sure he also greeted her with those long lanky arms stretched out and gave her that big hug that you and I miss so terribly much. I love you my friend!

“ My dear Mark, Marsha, Colleen, and Samuel...because of Winona, I came to know y'all and though miles and distance separated us over the years, I have lots of memories of her, especially of the years we shared together at N'side School...it's been a long journey, but Winona has received her Heavenly reward...May the beautiful undercurrent of His Peace bring you comfort today and in the days to follow...blessings❤️

“ Winona, "Nonie" Hester Dill Martin, was my oldest and dearest friend. On our first day of school at Waterloo Elementary School in the first grade our Mothers sat us together and we remained close and inseparable until we graduated from High School and went to different colleges, and even then we kept in touch.

To the Martin family: I am truly sorry for your loss, but it's a comfort knowing she's at home with her Savior, family, and friends gone on before her and she's at peace now.

I feel an emptiness in my heart, but I'm so blessed to have had her as my friend, she made my life so much fuller and better for having been such a big part of it. "I love you, Nonie, and I will see you again in our heavenly home."
