“ Jack was the father of my daughter-in-law, Carol Watson. I never knew a kinder, more honest man than Jack. He reminded me of my own father, with his love of gardening, his sense of humor and his gentleness with his children. Good Night, dear friend. I know you're enjoying your new home.

“ Jack was as open and honest as a man could be. He lived the Lord's command that we love one another.

“PaPa” will be missed, but we know he is with us in spirit and always will be. He was a terrific man, honest and sincere, delightful and humorous. We always enjoyed seeing him and we are sure he is in a better place now, looking down on us from above. May God bless you PaPa. You will forever be in our hearts.

“Carol, I am so sorry to learn of your father's death. I always thought he was a good, kind, family man. I am so sorry that I just found out. I would have been with you last week. Please let me know if there is anything that I can do for you.
Sincerely, Pam Harris

“ Well, it has been quite a run for you Papa, I am sure that you are now wherever it is you dreamed you would be. I didn't get to visit as often as I would have liked but there were circumstances for that so I suppose all I can do is remember the times I did visit. Love you, hope you find a peaceful rest.

In my heart, I have stored the joy of all the private times we shared for 68 years, the walks, the stories, the conversions, the separations and the tears when we came together again. I know I was always loved. Peace.*
